

What's Missing?

If you are a New York company and haven't updated your prelicensing materials with the latest state regulation, you could miss your new agent recruiting targets.

Support • Flexibility • Innovation • First-Time Pass Rates Of 80%

Effective January 13, 2011, New York state regulations require Life Settlement Providers and Brokers to be licensed and adhere to recently enacted mandates regarding financial disclosures. Licensing exams administered after the effective date will feature additional questions related to the sale of Life Settlements, including.

STC's approved New York State Online Life, Accident and Health Prelicensing Program [already] reflects these additions.

Click Here for More Information or Contact Maggie Hernandez at

800 782-1223 ext. 230

e-mail mhernandez@stcusa.com

