

When the Recruiter Report Says	It Refers To	Candidate Feedback Report Recommendations
Work Instability	The amount of evidence indicating whether the candidate has a history of establishing and maintaining strong ties to their employment situation	Establish more employment stability
Current Employment Status	The candidate's current situation, circumstances leading up to the current situation, and future plans relevant to employment	Establish more employment stability
Insufficient Financial and Professional Achievement	The amount of evidence indicating whether the candidate has achieved success in past undertakings, relative to the opportunities they had to achieve	Establish more financial stability
Experience Being Recruited	The manner and circumstances under which the candidate learned about the industry and the specific position	Become more familiar with the financial services sales career
Insufficient Personal Experience with Financial Services Products	The extent to which the candidate has personal experience with financial services products	Become more familiar with financial services products

What is Recruiting Experience