Coronavirus (COVID-19):

Employees in Financial Services

LIMRA and LOMA surveyed 85 C-Suite executives to see how coronavirus (COVID-19) is affecting employees in the financial services industry.

How frequently are you communicating with employees?

Weekly 28% Daily

Has your company implemented any new policies around preparedness for the coronavirus situation?

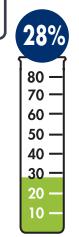

We require employees to bring their laptops home every night

We have implemented a visitor screening process

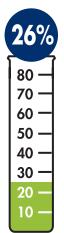

We have asked employees to test their work-from-home capabilities

Other

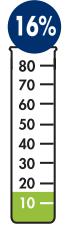

Has your company performed a large-scale test for having employees work remotely?

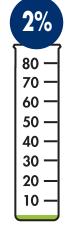

We are considering a large-scale test

We have tested at least half our workforce

We have tested all of our workforce

We are not considering a large-scale test at this time

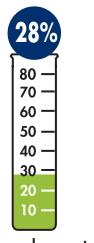

10 -

Other

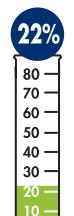

30 -

20

Has your work-from-home policy changed in response to the current coronavirus situation?

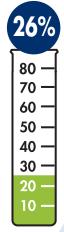

No, we have not changed our work-from-home policy

We are allowing employees to work from home

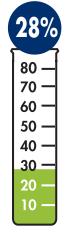

We have asked all employees to work from home

Other

Has your company modified its office visitation policy?

We have not changed our office visitation policy

80 — 70 — 60 — 50 — 40 — 30 — 20 —

We have restricted visitors to the office

7%

80 — 70 — 60 — 50 — 40 — 30 — 20 —

We have restricted visitors coming from specific regions domestically

10 -

22%

80 — 70 — 60 — 50 — 40 — 30 —

We have restricted visitors from international locations

10 -

80 — 70 — 60 — 50 — 40 — 30 — 20 —

Other

Methodology

LIMRA and LOMA surveyed 85 C-Suite executives from February 28–March 2, 2020 to learn how COVID-19 is affecting employees financial services industry.

LOMA www.loma.org